

Golden Spike Foundation
60 South 600 East, Suite 150
Salt Lake City, Utah 84102

GOLDEN SPIKE SUBMISSION GUIDELINES:

- Location: Events must take place in Utah.
- Lead Time: We recommend that all event listings be submitted online a minimum of two weeks in advance of start date to maximize audience exposure. Once submitted, your event listing will be reviewed and posted within two business days.
- Public Events: Only events open to the public will be accepted. No private or invitation-only events will be accepted.
- Events: Please submit a link to a website or Facebook event page that contains detailed information about your activity or event.

Spike 150 will accept and promote the following type of public events to commemorate the 150th Transcontinental Railroad:

- Art
- Arts & Cultural Fundraisers
- Classes & Workshops
- Dance
- Family
- Festivals & Special Events
- Film
- Food & Drink (culinary events)
- History & Heritage
- Museums & Displays
- Music
- Spoken & Written Word: poetry, literature, storytelling
- Sports & Outdoors
- Theatre

Spike150.org reserves the right to edit graphic images and submissions for grammar, style, and accuracy, as well as remove any listings that we believe are not suitable for the site and don't adequately commemorate the 150th anniversary of the Transcontinental Railroad. Please contact nicole@spike150.com with any questions.